

PRESS RELEASE

Mohammedia on 14/01/2015

INDUPROJ has obtain the ISO 9001 & OHSAS 18001 certifications

Mohammedia (Morocco), January 14, 2015: INDUPROJ an emerging player in the construction of industrial plants obtained the ISO 9001: 2008 and OHSAS 18001: 2007 certifications for its Quality, Health and Safety at work management System, following the audit conducted in December 2014 on its Moroccan and Mauritanian sites by Bureau Veritas Certification.

INDUPROJ welcomes obtaining these certifications which is an essential step in its committed approach to reach distinction and excellence and rewards its efforts to offer its Clients a high quality service while preserving the health and safety of its employees and partners.

"INDUPROJ has always put quality and safety at the heart of its concerns, we thank all our employees for their contribution to achieving this target, which is only a first step in our strategic development plan 2014-2019 to make INDUPROJ a key player in the construction of industrial facilities in Africa and Middle east . We will continue to ensure that our customers are fully satisfied and that our employees work in the best safety conditions" said Nizar Jarir its Managing Director.

Press Contact:

Mrs. Nadia ANAJJAR

n.anajjar@induproj.com

Tel : +212 523 32 63 54 ; Fax : +212 523 31 63 54

About INDUPROJ :

INDUPROJ is a specialized company in the construction of industrial facilities and infrastructures such as storage tanks, piping and pipelines, mining machines and facilities, for Oil & Gas, Mining, and Chemical industries. The company is active in North and West Africa and plans to expand its operations to Middle East and other regions. Safety and Efficiency, these are the two values forging its reputation and allow it to achieve challenges of the most complex solutions in extreme environments while ensuring security, quality and delivery time.

